Laboratoires Activa

THE GLOBAL APPROACH TO WELL BEING

Here at Laboratoires Activa we have set ourselves the goal of designing a new generation of health supplements, taking into account all the physiological mechanisms of the human body.

These innovative health supplements are formulated to create a synergy between active ingredients (plants, trace minerals, amino acids) and optimise their targeted delivery.

A sophisticated blending protocol is developed for each product, guaranteeing bioavailability and biocompatibility.

Activa's multidisciplinary team is working along these lines in collaboration with healthcare professionals; in order to contribute to advances in cellular nutrition.

Activa products comply with French and European regulations:

Compliant with European Directive 2002/46

Compliant with FDA GMP CFR 21

Compliant with ISO 9001/2015

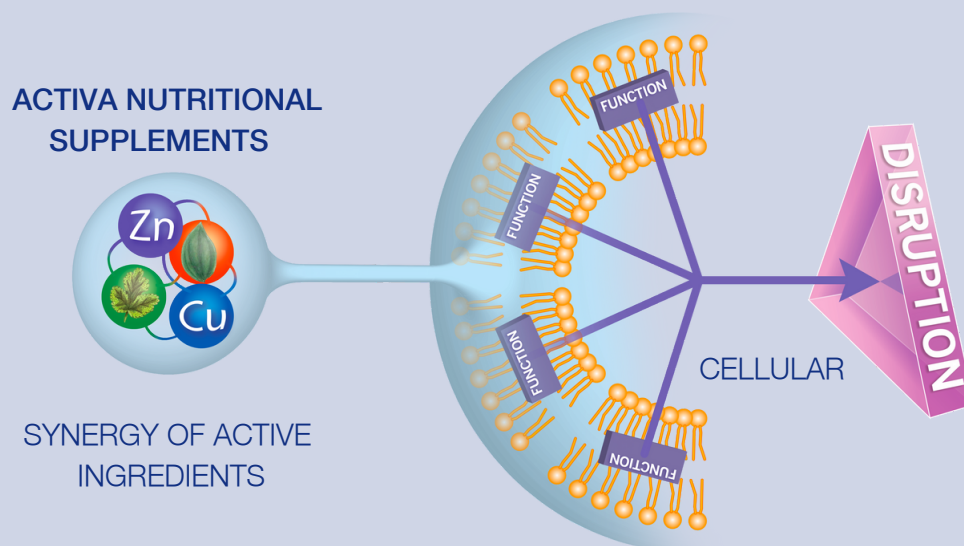

PhytoVitality

OUR “NEXT GEN” SUPPLEMENTS

Activa complexes are designed taking into account the body’s capacity for self-regulation: the active ingredients support the body’s natural regulation mechanisms by providing and targeting delivery of the necessary nutrients when and where they are needed the most.

Key Benefits:

- Increased efficiency
- Fast-acting
- No cellular stress
- No side-effects

The cell itself acts to counter any DISRUPTION thanks to the synergy of our innovative active ingredients blends.

OUR “NEXT GEN” SUPPLEMENTS

Quality of active ingredients:

- Standardised titrated dry extracts
- High in bioactive markers
- Traceability of active ingredients
- Guaranteed safety: standardised analysis of raw materials
- GMO, colorant and pesticide-free

Innovative blends and assembly method for perfect biocompatibility and bioavailability

activa Human Structure

A micronutrition range for a balanced and self-regulating metabolism

A whole new approach at diet supplementation, supplement philosophy and design.

Ensuring that the essential components in our body - lipids, fats, proteins, carbohydrates, and antioxidant defense - continue to function correctly is the key to excellent physical and intellectual health.

Human Structure takes a holistic view of the human body, and the complex interactions between its many systems.

Human Structure addresses and corrects imbalances in all these systems, replenishing your body's vital energy storage.

activa Human Structure

Easily assimilated by your body...

The five products in the Human Structure program contain essential and fully bioavailable micronutrients for your body's well-being.

Each supplement contains natural ingredients that your body will recognise, absorb and use.
